College Policy on Academic Dishonesty:

A. Academic Dishonesty

Academic irregularities include, but are not limited to, giving or receiving of unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any academic assignment; taking or attempting to take, stealing, or otherwise obtaining in an unauthorized manner any material pertaining to the education process; selling, giving, lending, or otherwise furnishing to any person any question and/or answers to any examination known to be scheduled at any subsequent date; fabricating, forging, or falsifying lab or clinical results; plagiarism in any form related to themes, essays, term papers, tests, and other assignments; breaching any confidentiality regarding patient information.

B. Disciplinary Procedures

1. When a faculty member suspects that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty, the faculty member will contact the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will notify the student in writing of the report and will appoint a neutral person from among the faculty or staff to meet with the faculty member who reported the matter and the student(s) believed to have engaged in academic dishonesty. The purpose of the meeting, to be scheduled by the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, will be to provide a facilitated discussion about what may have occurred. The faculty member who reported the matter, the student(s) believed to have engaged in academic dishonesty, and the facilitator are the only participants in the meeting. Audio nor video recordings of these proceedings will be permitted. Following the discussion, the facilitator will submit a form summarizing results of the proceedings to the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
2. The faculty member and student(s) may reach an agreement about the matter and, if dishonesty is involved, may determine the appropriate consequences. If no resolution is agreed upon, the matter will be forwarded to the Dean of Student Life and Housing, who will convene the Student Judiciary Committee to determine the outcome of the allegation.
3. Guidelines for disciplinary procedures as outlined in Section V of the Student Code of Conduct will be applicable in cases involving alleged academic dishonesty. A written copy of the recommendations by the Student Judiciary Committee shall be sent not only to the student but also to the faculty member who made the allegations of academic dishonesty against the student, to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and to the President.
4. Prior to any finding of responsibility on the part of the student, the faculty member shall permit the student to complete all required academic work and shall evaluate and grade all work except the assignment(s) involved in the accusation of dishonesty. The faculty member may, however, take any action reasonably necessary to collect and preserve evidence of the alleged violation and to maintain or restore the integrity of exam or laboratory conditions.
5. A student may not withdraw from a course to avoid penalty of plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty.

C. Appeals Process

Students have the right to appeal a Student Judiciary Committee hearing recommendation in accordance with the following procedures:

1. Requests for appeals must be submitted in writing to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs within five business days of the date of the letter notifying the student of the original decision. Failure to appeal within the allotted time will render the original decision final and conclusive.
2. Written requests for appeals must be specific and detailed as to the nature and substance of the student's complaint and must clearly indicate what action is requested. The written request should specify the grounds for appeal. Judicial recommendations may be appealed on the following grounds:
  - A violation of due process
  - Prejudicial treatment by the original hearing body
  - New evidence has become available which was not available at the time of the hearing.
3. Appeals shall be decided upon the record of the original proceedings, the written appeal submitted by the defendant, and any written briefs submitted by other participants. Cases will not be reheard on appeal.
4. If the student is dissatisfied with the decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs, the student may request in writing that the President consider the appeal, but such request must be made within five business days of the Vice President's decision or the Vice President's decision will be considered final and conclusive.
5. Within five business days of receiving the appeal, the President will either rule on the appeal or refer the appeal to a special Presidential Panel. The Presidential Panel will review all facts and circumstances connected with the case and within five business days make a report of its findings to the President. After consideration of the Panel's report, the President will within five business days make a decision which shall be final so far as the College is concerned.
6. Should the student be dissatisfied with the President's decision, written application may be made to the Board of Regents for a review of the decision. This application must be submitted within twenty days following the decision of the President. Additional information regarding procedures for appealing to the Board is available in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. The decision of the Board shall be final and binding for all purposes.

If there is a student in this class who has specific needs because of learning disabilities or any other disability, please feel free to contact the instructor.

C	385 - 439
D	330 – 384
F	under 329

Classroom behavior:

- Because this class will rely heavily on group discussion of the topics presented it is imperative that students exhibit respect towards each other at all times, despite differences of opinion. Having had different experiences often leads us to have different viewpoints; we don't have to agree, we just have to listen and grant others the right to their own opinions.
- Cell phones should be turned off upon entering the classroom and should not be used to either text or talk until you leave. Failure to do this will, at the very least, affect your participation grade, and will likely result in the confiscation of your phone until class is over. Don't make me do this!! If you are expecting an EMERGENCY call, you must let me know prior to class the nature of the expected call; if I agree that it reaches the level of emergency, you will be allowed to leave your phone on vibrate and can leave the room to answer ONLY that call.
- It is my expectation that you will read the assigned chapter to be discussed BEFORE class so that you will be prepared to discuss what you've read.
- All writing assignments should be neat and employ good grammar and spelling; if this is not your strong suit, get someone to proof it for you before you turn it in. The ability to effectively communicate your ideas in writing is a life skill that will often determine your ability to flourish in a professional setting. It IS important!

Attendance: You are expected to come to class each time, having already read and/or completed all assignments. I will take attendance each time, and you will lose participation points for each absence, regardless of the reason. As a courtesy, you should make the instructor aware of any planned absences, but know this will not prohibit you from losing points for the absence. The participation grades from in-class assignments CANNOT be made up. My experience has been that a person's attendance record in school or at a job has far less to do with life circumstances than with personal priorities.

Tardiness: If you come in after I have called roll, it will be your responsibility to come and tell me after class that you were indeed in attendance. If I am not told at the end of the class period, I will count you as absent.

Make-up for missed exams: Since you will be allowed to drop one test grade, there will be no make-up for a missed test – NO exceptions!

Late Assignments: Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Anything not ready to be turned in at that time will be considered late, and, if accepted, will incur a 10 point penalty per day late. Keep in mind that I am not here every day, so there will be many days I will not check my box.

Important Dates:

- Classes begin August 16, 2010; this class first meets on August 17, 2010.
- Midterm is Wednesday, Oct. 6
- Fall Break is Oct. 18-19.
- Last Day of Fall Semester is December 3.
- Final Exam for this class is set for Thursday, Dec .9 from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.
