charge for ABAC faculty, staff, and students.

In conjunction with the concert, there will be an art exhibit in the Music Building, adjacent to the Chapel of All Faiths. This month, Donna Hatcher, assistant professor of art at ABAC, will feature paintings, drawings, and two-dimensional designs by ABAC art students. The exhibit will be open for viewing before and after the concert.

As part of the Arts and Entertainment Series, sponsored by the Arts Connection, the concerts, which last one hour, are designed to be light, entertaining, and informative.

For more information about the First Tuesday Performance Series, contact Dr. Susan Roe at 3097. For more information about the entire Arts & Entertainment series, contact the Arts Connection at 3558.

Open Campus Saturday in the Carlton Center

Visitors to the annual Fall Open Campus Day at ABAC on Saturday will have a chance to visit the new ABAC Place apartments. The event will take place in the Cordell Conference Room of the Carlton Center beginning with registration and academic displays from 10-11:15 a.m. Campus walking tours will be offered by the ABAC Ambassadors from 10-11 a.m., and a tour of the first ABAC Place Apartment will take place at 10:15 a.m.

Ambassadors will also lead a campus driving tour which includes the J.G. Woodroof Farm. ABAC President Mike Vollmer will host an info session from 11:15-11:45 a.m.

Set up time for exhibits will be from 1-5 p.m. on Friday and from 8-9 a.m. on Saturday.

Construction continues on the new ABAC Place apartments. Tours of one completely furnished apartment will be available at 10:15 a.m. and noon on Saturday at the annual Fall Open Campus Day.

Baldwin Players Open Thursday

ABAC's Baldwin Players will present six monologue plays by playwright Don Nigro Thursday-Saturday in Room 319 in Conger Hall. The show consists of six miniature one-person plays, celebrating the monologue as a dramatic form.

Showtime is at 7:30 p.m. Latecomers cannot be seated. Admission is $5. There is no charge for ABAC faculty, staff, and students. The show is intended for mature audiences. There will be a brief intermission after the first three monologues.

Dr. John G. Galyean, director of the Baldwin Players, said monologue is unique in today's theatre.

"In modern plays, characters' emotions are usually dealt with in dialogue with other characters," Galyean said. "Seldom are there occasions for a character to launch into a prolonged speech. Of course, in earlier times, the monologue was a normal part of the drama, even a convention of the time, like a messenger's speech in ancient Greek plays or Shakespeare's soliloquies."

Fall Concert November 20

The annual Fall Concert featuring the ABAC Concert Band and Concert Choir will be held on Nov. 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center at Tift County High School. There is no charge to attend. Plan to come and enjoy some great music.

Pancakes on Saturday

The Golden Fillies softball team will hold its fourth annual pancake breakfast at Applebee's on Saturday from 8-10 a.m. Tickets are $6 each and can be purchased from any player or by contacting Coach Donna Campbell at dcampbel@abac.edu.

Basketball Friday Night

The Golden Stallions of Coach Todd Sheppard will host Spartanburg Methodist at 7:30 p.m. on Friday at Gressette Gym in their home opener. The first home game for the Golden Fillies of Coach Julie Conner will be at 5:30 p.m. on Nov. 10 in a twin bill with the Stallions.

Regents' Exam Tuesday

The Regents' Exam will be administered on Tuesday at 9 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 6 p.m. Students must sign in today from 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. at the Student Development Center to confirm their registration for the test, even if they are pre-registered. Students who test in Moultrie should sign up in Moultrie. The test will be given at 6 p.m. today at ABAC on the Square. Photo ID is required. For details, contact bullngtn@abac.edu.

Concert Choir Featured

Wayne Jones and the ABAC Concert Choir were featured in the Albany State University Centennial Celebration on Oct. 28 in Albany. Jones directed the group, as well as being featured in a solo. Other groups in the Celebration chorus included the Albany Chorale, the Albany State University Concert Chorale, the Darton College Concert Choir, and the Georgia Southwestern State University Concert Choir. ABAC President Mike Vollmer was a guest of ASU President Portia Shields at the evening gala.

Contributions Update

ABAC contributions to the State Charitable Contributions Program as of Oct. 28 totaled $5,604 with 47 contributors. The United Way total was $3,907. If you have not already sent in your pledge, the deadline is Nov. 21.

Add to Your Benefits

The Open Enrollment period for your 2004 ABAC benefits package will extend through Nov. 14. This a great chance for you to take advantage of several benefits which you may not presently have in your package.

This year the Human Resources team of Bertha Daniel, Jane Thompson, and Bam Pirkle will not visit each individual office. However, open meetings will be held on Wednesday from 9-10 a.m. and from 2-3 p.m. in Cordell Conference Room C.

Care & Concern

Ellen Resta's husband, Barry, is in Smith-Northview Hospital in Valdosta with multiple digestive system problems. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers.

Signs Coming Soon

Software problems should be worked out this week so the electronic signs can go into full use. Once the signs are in operation, messages can be sent to Public Relations Administrative Assistant Pam Leonard via email to be placed on the sign. Stay tuned.

Cortes Competes for ABAC

Ana P. Cortes, a graduate of ABAC's High School Equivalency Program and current CAMP student, was nominated to represent the college at the Exceptionally Adult Georgian in Literacy Education (EAGLE) Competition on Oct. 24. The event was held at the Moultrie Technical College campus in Tifton.

Contestants included representatives of other adult education programs in the Tiftarea. They were judged on character, attitude, attendance, leadership, personal appearance, and community activities. The staff and students of ABAC's CAMP/HEP program salute Ana for her fine work and outstanding qualities.

ABAC Family

Tamara Dennis from the Division of Nursing recently passed a certification examination and was awarded the title of International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners.

Mike Chason spoke on the new ABAC Place apartments at the Nashville Rotary Club on Oct. 28.

Dr. Maggie Martin and Arlene Bailey administered the National ACT to 28 students from 17 different communities on Oct. 25.

Stephanie Holcombe presented at the Georgia Teachers of Mathematics Conference at Rock Eagle on Oct. 16. Her session was entitled Developing Critical Thinking Using a College Algebra Group Modeling Project.

Be Careful!

The Chapel of All Faiths is currently being re-roofed. The work should be completed by the second week in December. Please be careful in the area.

Note of Sympathy

Margaret Brogdon's sister, Evelyn, passed away on Oct. 27. Funeral services were held in Lakeland on Oct. 29. Please keep her family in your thoughts and prayers.
