

Chapters 2 & 3
Textile
Review

1. List the six categories of serviceability concepts.
2. _____ refers to the design and engineering of a product so that it has the desired serviceability characteristics and appeals to the desired audience.
3. _____ describes the manner in which a textile, textile component, or textile product responds to use or how it responds when exposed to some environmental factor that might adversely affect it.
4. List the 4 properties of aesthetics.
5. _____ is the ability of a fabric to withstand the rubbing it gets during use.
6. Tenacity and elongation are associated with which serviceability concept?
7. List the properties associated with comfort.
8. _____ is the ability of a fabric to return to its original shape after bending, twisting, or crushing.
9. List the properties associated with appearance retention.

