

Baldwin Players

Any student whose interests include carpentry, sound and light technology, public relations, clothing design, theatrical production, or acting should consider joining the Baldwin Players. The Players stage two productions each year. Auditions are announced well in advance and are open to all students. For more information, interested students should contact Dr. John Galyean (jgalyean@abac.edu) in the School of Liberal Arts. Dr. Galyean's office is located on the third floor of Conger Hall.
