ABAC Sweeps State Tennis Titles
Coach Alan Kramer's Fillies and Stallions made it a clean sweep on Saturday at the NJCAA Region XVII tennis championships at the Red Hill Athletics Center. The Fillies won the women's title for the 17th consecutive year with 16 points followed by Georgia Perimeter (GPC) with nine, and Young Harris with two. The Stallions won the men's crown with 18 points followed by Young Harris with six, and GPC with one. ABAC's Rasid Winklaar was the MVP for the men, and Mary Claire Slade from GPC was the MVP for the women. Kramer was named Coach of the Year for the men and women.

ABAC Tennis Program is Respected Nationwide
The men’s tennis program at ABAC is one of the most respected intercollegiate tennis programs in the nation qualifying for the National Tournament 43 times in its 44 year existence. The Golden Stallions won the NJCAA National title in 1984 & 1999. The Stallions finished runner-up at the National Tournament in 2002 & 2003 and brought home 3rd place honors in 2008 & 2009 in Dallas Texas.
