

	Destination Ag	Self-Guided Tours	Visit to the Past Workshop
Description	Student groups, led by teachers or group leaders provided by the visiting school, rotate through three learning stations focused on connecting agriculture and natural resources to children’s daily lives and educates them on career opportunities within these industries.	Student groups, led by teachers or group leaders provided by the visiting school, explore attractions throughout the Historic Village and Museum at their own pace and visit with costumed interpreters who provide discussions and interactive experiences.	Student groups, led by teachers or group leaders provided by the visiting school, follow an itinerary consisting of 25-minute interpreter led, hands-on sessions held at various attractions throughout the Historic Village and Museum. The number of sessions depends upon school’s arrival/ departure times.
Costumes	Not applicable.	No, students do not dress in costume.	Yes, students dress in costume (suspenders/skirts & aprons) provided by the Museum.
Lunch Provided	No, Opry Shelter picnic area is available for schools to bring lunches.	No, historic lunch is not included. Opry Shelter picnic area is available for schools bringing lunches.	Yes, historic lunch for students & group leaders is provided at a homestead. All other adults (including teachers and bus drivers) must bring their lunch or purchase lunch at the Drug Store.
Student Numbers	Maximum: 240 Minimum: 10	Maximum: unlimited! Minimum: 10	Maximum: 100 Minimum: 10
Number of Free Group Leaders Allotted by Museum	1 free adult group leader for every 10 students; this number will adjust if student numbers change; Education Department will provide official number of free adult group leaders on reservation confirmation	1 free adult group leader for every 10 students; this number will adjust if student numbers change; Education Department will provide official number of free adult group leaders on reservation confirmation	1 free adult group leader for every 5-8 students; this number will adjust if student numbers change; Education Department will provide official number of free adult group leaders on reservation confirmation
If a group has over 100 students?	Not applicable, Destination Ag can accommodate a max of 240 students per day.	If a school’s student numbers exceed 100 and only one day is available to visit, then the school would need to participate in a self-guided tour.	If a school’s student numbers exceed 100, then they can visit over a multiple day period to allow all students to participate in the workshop.
Time frame for program	PreK and K programming occurs from 9:15 am – 1:00 pm. First and Second grade programming occurs from 9:15 am – 1:30 pm.	Tours are best suited for schools with either unlimited or very limited time frames. The Museum is open from 9:00 am-3:00 pm.	The general workshop time frame is from 9:30 am-2:30 pm. However, schedules can be adjusted to meet individual school’s arrival/departure times.
Train Ride	No. The program schedule does not allow time for a train ride.	No. However, the train can be added for an additional cost upon request.	No. However, the train can be added for an additional cost upon request.
Adult Admission	Teachers, bus drivers, and group leaders receive free admission. All other adults must pay general admission ($7.00 + tax).	Teachers, bus drivers, and group leaders receive free admission. All other adults must pay general admission ($7.00 + tax).	Teachers, bus drivers, and group leaders receive free admission. All other adults must pay general admission ($7.00 + tax).
Student Cost	PreK-2 nd grades in Berrien, Colquitt, Cook, and Tift counties’ public schools participate at no cost. Other counties may participate at a cost of $7.00/student.	$5.00/student	$15.00/student