An article critique is a general overview of an article. The last paragraph of the critique is your opinion of the article.

1. Article must come from a professional journal or an approved Health source.

2. Article critique must be typed.
   When typed, double space and use 1 inch margins.

3. Format: Heading of the article must be centered and include the title of the article, author, source, (underline the source), date, and page number.

4. Your name and class times should be typed at the end of the article.

5. A copy of the article must be turned in along with your critique.

6. At least one of the articles must come from the internet.

Grading: content, neatness of work, selection of article, format followed, how well written, and your opinion.

LENGTH: About one and a half to two pages (double spaced).

Article Critique counts 100 points.

Article Critiques are due at class time. Late critiques will be assessed a minus 5 points for each day late.