Experience It! Nuremberg Christmas Market
Nuremberg Christmas Market is one of Germany’s most famous Christmas fairs. Each year, the center of Nuremberg’s medieval old town is transformed into a Christmas village featuring 180 stalls adorned with greenery and lights. It is also one of Germany’s oldest Christkindlesmarkts dating back to the 16th century. In keeping with its historic traditions, the market’s stalls are restricted to only offering traditional goods including Zwetschgenmännle (little prune people), toys, nutcrackers and coo coo clocks. The food is also old-world German and includes spicy gingerbread, roast sausages, and the German Christmas favorite, mulled wine. The market is overlooked by a 13th-century castle and is surrounded by many historic buildings that house museums and antique shops which give the market an authentic old-world feel.
