Course Description: A survey of United States history from the post Civil War period to the present. This course covers the major social, economic, cultural, and political issues in American history since the Civil War. A particular emphasis is placed on the role of Georgia in the development of the nation.

Pre-requisites/Co-requisites: Exit Learning Support Reading & English

Learning Outcomes

Specifically, students who take History courses at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College are expected to show competency in the following outcomes:

1) Demonstrate the ability to analyze historical documents.

2) Identify Primary as opposed to Secondary documents/sources.

3) Demonstrate the ability to extract relevant information from maps and graphs.

4) Employ those facts and interpretations to extract primary arguments from primary and/or secondary sources.

INSTITUTIONAL ABSENCE

A student who serves as an official representative of the college is defined as one who:
1. is authorized to use the college name in public relationships outside the institution;
2. regularly interacts with non-college individuals and groups over an extended period of time (at least one semester);
3. represents the college as a part of a group and not as an individual;
4. represents the college under the direct supervision of a college faculty or staff member; and
5. is authorized in writing, in advance, by the President of the college.

Such a student is in no way released from the obligations and responsibilities of all students, but will not be penalized with unexcused absences when absences result from regularly scheduled activities in which he/she represents the college.

Further, it is the responsibility of each student to contact instructors prior to the absence and to make arrangements to make up any work that will be missed, in a manner acceptable to the instructor. Advisors of activities will schedule off-campus activities in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the learning process for a student.
FOREWARNED IS FOREARMED!!! ALL ABAC POLICIES, ESPECIALLY THOSE REGARDING ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT, WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED! (See the ABAC Student Handbook at http://www.abac.edu/ses/handbook/)

PERSONAL ELECTRONIC MEDIA POLICY:
The ABAC faculty appreciate that many students live in an environment of virtually unlimited electronic connectivity through the use of Cellphones, BlackBerries, Bluetooth technology, I-Pods, MP3 players, and whatever new technology as will appear on the consumer market. Commensurate with this connectivity has been a dramatic increase in both the incidence and degree of academic misconduct committed by students across the nation. The very nature of these technologies render faculty unable to determine from any distance when these devices are activated and/or operating. What can be determined is that whether or not the devices are in use, the class instructor is not using them either to conduct lectures or to administer tests, quizzes or exams during the class meeting.

Therefore, it is the policy for each of my classes that use, intentional or otherwise, of any electronic media devices not prescribed by law or by medical professionals, (hearing aids) constitutes academic misconduct (cheating) on the part of the student. ALL PERSONAL ELECTRONIC MEDIA USE IS PROHIBITED FOR THE DURATION OF MY PRESENCE IN THE CLASSROOM. The devices are to be turned off AND put away so that they cannot be seen, viewed or used during the class meeting. ANY USE OF SUCH DEVICES, INTENTIONAL OR OTHERWISE, WITH BE REGARDED BOTH AS CHEATING AND DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR. THE FIRST OFFENCE WILL RESULT IN THE LOSS OF TEN POINTS ON THE FINAL GRADE OF THE OFFENDER. A SECOND OFFENCE WILL RESULT IN A COURSE GRADE OF F FOR THAT STUDENT. ADDITIONALLY, A CELL PHONE GOING OFF DURING A TEST, QUIZ OR EXAM WILL RESULT ON A GRADE OF ZERO FOR THAT ASSIGNMENT. MULTIPLE OFFENCES WILL BE CONSIDERED A DELIBERATE PATTERN OF CHEATING AND DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR, AND WILL BE DEALT WITH AS SUCH. See Section F.10 of the Student Handbook, at http://www.abac.edu/ses/handbook/CodeofConduct.pdf

Midterm Advisory Grades
Midterm Advisory Grades will be reported on Banner Web to any student who has a “C,” “D,” or “F” in any class. The number of class absences will be posted for all students. Advisory grades are not entered on the student’s permanent record. Students should note that these grades are advisory and will not necessarily reflect the final grade earned in a course. These grades are intended to provide students with information in order to improve their performance in the second half of the semester. Students are responsible for checking Banner Web when grades and absences have been reported. Students who receive grades should meet with their instructors to develop plans for success in the second half of the semester. Students should also take advantage of study groups and plan for ongoing conferences with instructors in order to monitor their progress. ABAC provides free tutorial assistance for most courses through the Academic Assistance Center (AAC); in addition to other academic support activities, students should work with their instructors to establish tutoring in the AAC.

If there is a student in this class who has specific needs because of learning disabilities or any other disability, please feel free to contact the instructor.

OBJECTIVE:
The Objective of this course is for the student to understand and analyze the history of the United States from the end of Reconstruction to the present. Successful completion of this course will enable the student to speak and write intelligently about each major aspect of the course material.
REQUIRED TEXTS & COURSE MATERIALS:

http://www.wwnorton.com/college/history/america8/brief/

THREE Scantron No. 882-E scantrons
FIVE Scantron No. 815-E scantrons

These scantrons will be delivered to the professor IN HIS OFFICE AND UNMARKED by the end of Week Two during regularly scheduled office hours.

This class will be conducted as a combination of discussion and lecture. I assume that you, as college students can and will read and understand the appropriate sections of the text before class. I will not repeat the textbook but expect that you will demonstrate your comprehension of the textbook on the examinations. If you read something that you do not understand, ask about it in class.

GRADING: There will be two major true/false multiple choice tests, plus the final true/false multiple-choice exam, each of which count for 20% of the final grade. There will be a series of five quizzes given throughout the term, usually once every three weeks for a regular semester, or once a week during a Summer term. These will be averaged together, that average counting 20% of the final grade. These quizzes will test the student’s knowledge of the U.S. Constitution, including all its articles and amendments. Additionally, each HIST 2112 HONORS student will complete and present The HIST 2112 HONORS Research Project, as outlined on page 5 of this syllabus. The Research Project will count 20% toward your final grade.

You are also required to read this syllabus, and attest to your understanding and acceptance of its provisions by signing and handing in the student contract found on the last page. You will NOT be allowed to remain in this class if you fail to do so.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

ATTENDANCE POLICIES SPECIFIC TO MY CLASSES:

A) You will be allowed a total of SIX unexcused absences. More than six will result in a grade of F for the class. Institutional absences, which are excused, are defined in the Student Handbook, and on the first page of this syllabus. There will be NO excused absences for my class that are undocumented:

-If you are sick, go see a Doctor, and get a receipt of your visit on letterhead.
-If you have a relevant funeral, bring an obituary or a program.
-If you have a flat tire or dead battery, bring a receipt, tire or battery.
-If you have military service requirements, Law Enforcement or First Response obligations, speak to me in my office ASAP.
-Family vacations, parties, sporting events, alarm clock failures, parking difficulties and Jail are NOT examples of excused absences.

B) YOU have the responsibility of presenting the above documentation ASAP, BUT ABSOLUTELY NO LATER THAN TWENTY FOUR HOURS AFTER YOU RETURN TO CLASS! Failure to do so will result in the absence being unexcused, regardless of the reason.

C) ALL discussions of excused/unexcused absences will take place in my office, not in the classroom. (see Office Hours)

D) ALL MAKE-UP WORK SCHEDULING IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE STUDENT UPON THEIR RETURN TO CLASS. SEE ME IN MY OFFICE. All missed work can be made up prior to final exam week.

A student penalized for excessive absences may appeal through the grade appeal process, as stated in ABAC’s student handbook, at http://www.abac.edu/ses/handbook/
MY GRADEBOOK AND ATTENDANCE SHEETS ARE THE FINAL AND SUPREME ARBITER OF YOUR CLASSROOM ATTENDANCE. MAKE CERTAIN YOU ARE COUNTED PRESENT!!!

GRADING: is as follows:

- 90 - 100 = A
- 80 - 89 = B
- 70 - 79 = C
- 60 - 69 = D
- Below 60 = F

HIST 2112 (Honors)
Research Project Guidelines

As a notable Professor of Renaissance & Reformation Studies once said: “You can read about the Renaissance, or you can read the Renaissance, and decide for yourself what it means.” He was suggesting that reading about history without reading the actual history itself tends to give the student a two dimensional view of a four dimensional subject. As an Honors student, it is presumed that you are capable of deeper inquiry into the historical process, and that you can contribute to the sum total of available knowledge through primary source identification and documentary research. Both the student performing this research and the Academy will benefit thereby. Toward that end, your assignment is as follows:

You will select a family member or close family friend that either participated in, and/or witnessed an event of historical significance occurring during their lifetime. Such events could include, but are by no means limited to the assassination of President Kennedy, the first Moon landing in 1969, the Vietnam War, (either fighting in or protesting against), any notably significant national election, 9/11, the war on Terror, Hurricaine Katrina, etc.

As a student, you will identify this person, and ask them to participate in this project by answering questions regarding their role in these events, and their perception of the events, both at the time and after the fact. For example, you might ask a witness to 9/11 how they felt about the events at that time, and whether or not those perceptions have changed since then.

After you have identified your interview subject and obtained their agreement to participate, you should research the event in question, so that you will be able to ask relevant questions. If your subject participated in the Vietnam War, you should be familiar with the time period and the general chronology of that war. If you are interviewing a survivor of Hurricaine Katrina, you should be familiar with the history of the storm itself, as well as its impact on the victims and on economics and politics in general. As the interviewer, it is your responsibility to have this information prior to your interview.

This should not be a casual acquaintance, but rather someone you know well enough, and who knows you well enough to be comfortable asking questions of a personal or political nature, and willing to answer those questions honestly and accurately. Your choice in this matter is not to be taken lightly.

*The term “Document” may be understood in its traditional sense, and may also be applied to “statements” of historic significance. Examples of this might be the “Atlanta Compromise speech”, President Wilson’s War message in 1917, Plessy v. Ferguson, FDR’s inaugural address in 1933, Lydon Johnson’s Resolution on the Gulf of Tonkin, or George W. Bush’s declaration of a “War on Terror.”

 You should read the documents relevant to your chosen topic or subject, (most if not all of which will be available online,) and provide any relevant relevant quotes from those documents, those that speak to the heart of that document’s historic relevance or have the most direct impact on your research subject.
STUDENT CONTRACT:

I have read and understand the terms of the course syllabus for Dr. Galt-Brown’s HIST 2112 (HONORS) class. I agree to adhere to and abide by the requirements of this class as stated therein.
