Much More Internships Available

The Landings Club is “The Island of Much More”...Much More golf, Much More Tennis, Much More of anything desired so that our members experience “Life Overflowing.” The Landings Club is the largest private member owned club in the United States. The Club is located on Skidaway Island, an 18 square mile barrier island off the coast of Georgia. The Club is just minutes away from historic downtown Savannah and Tybee Island Beach. There are six championship golf courses designed by some of golf architectures greats such as Arthur Hills, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer and Willard Byrd. Each course has its own style and views; all of the courses intertwine along the salt marshes and lagoons that surround Skidaway Island.
