Course Name: Introduction to Marriage and Family

Course Number: FACS 2293/SOCI 2293 (CRN 20127)

Course Description: 3 hours. An introduction to the structure, processes, problems and adjustments of contemporary marriage and family life.

Pre-requisites/Co-requisites: Exemption from or successful completion of READ 0099.

Course Learning Outcomes:
1. Define marriage and family.
2. Describe the basic theoretical perspectives that explain family.
3. Identify the research methodology and techniques used to study family behavior.
4. Describe the evolution of the American family.
5. Describe traditional gender roles and socialization agents for men and women.
6. Examine the roles of friendship, love, and commitment in relationships.
7. Explain the process of mate selection and how contrasts in background and values may affect choice of mate selection.
8. Identify the function of nonverbal and verbal communication in relationships.
9. Discuss power issues in relationships and how to resolve conflict effectively.
10. Identify biological, emotional, social, and psychological aspects of pregnancy on women and men.
11. Describe characteristics of the three basic styles of parenting.
12. Identify family processes through the family life cycle, including the process of aging.
13. Explain the effect that work and economics have on contemporary family life.
14. Identify the causes of divorce and the effects divorce and remarriage have on the family.
INSTITUTIONAL ABSENCE

A student who serves as an official representative of the college is defined as one who:

1. is authorized to use the college name in public relationships outside the institution;
2. regularly interacts with non-college individuals and groups over an extended period of time (at least one semester);
3. represents the college as a part of a group and not as an individual;
4. represents the college under the direct supervision of a college faculty or staff member; and
5. is authorized in writing, in advance, by the President of the college.

Such a student is in no way released from the obligations and responsibilities of all students, but will not be penalized with unexcused absences when absences result from regularly scheduled activities in which he/she represents the college.

Further, it is the responsibility of each student to contact instructors prior to the absence and to make arrangements to make up any work that will be missed, in a manner acceptable to the instructor. Advisors of activities will schedule off-campus activities in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the learning process for a student.

College Policy on Academic Dishonesty:

A. Academic Dishonesty

Academic irregularities include, but are not limited to, giving or receiving of unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any academic assignment; taking or attempting to take, stealing, or otherwise obtaining in an unauthorized manner any material pertaining to the education process; selling, giving, lending, or otherwise furnishing to any person any question and/or answers to any examination known to be scheduled at any subsequent date; fabricating, forging, or falsifying lab or clinical results; plagiarism in any form related to themes, essays, term papers, tests, and other assignments; breaching any confidentiality regarding patient information.

B. Disciplinary Procedures

1. When a faculty member suspects that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty, the faculty member will contact the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will notify the student in writing of the report and will appoint a neutral person from among the faculty or staff to meet with the faculty member who reported the matter and the student(s) believed to have engaged in academic dishonesty. The purpose of the meeting, to be scheduled by the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, will be to provide a facilitated discussion about what may have occurred. The faculty member who reported the matter, the student(s) believed to have engaged in academic dishonesty, and the facilitator are the only participants in the meeting. Audio nor video recordings of these proceedings will be permitted. Following the discussion, the facilitator will submit a form summarizing results of the proceedings to the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
2. The faculty member and student(s) may reach an agreement about the matter and, if dishonesty is involved, may determine the appropriate consequences. If no resolution is agreed upon, the matter will be forwarded to the Dean of Student Life and Housing, who will convene the Student Judiciary Committee to determine the outcome of the allegation.

3. Guidelines for disciplinary procedures as outlined in Section V of the Student Code of Conduct will be applicable in cases involving alleged academic dishonesty. A written copy of the recommendations by the Student Judiciary Committee shall be sent not only to the student but also to the faculty member who made the allegations of academic dishonesty against the student, to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and to the President.

4. Prior to any finding of responsibility on the part of the student, the faculty member shall permit the student to complete all required academic work and shall evaluate and grade all work except the assignment(s) involved in the accusation of dishonesty. The faculty member may, however, take any action reasonably necessary to collect and preserve evidence of the alleged violation and to maintain or restore the integrity of exam or laboratory conditions.

5. A student may not withdraw from a course to avoid penalty of plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty.

C. Appeals Process

Students have the right to appeal a Student Judiciary Committee hearing recommendation in accordance with the following procedures:

1. Requests for appeals must be submitted in writing to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs within five business days of the date of the letter notifying the student of the original decision. Failure to appeal within the allotted time will render the original decision final and conclusive.

2. Written requests for appeals must be specific and detailed as to the nature and substance of the student’s complaint and must clearly indicate what action is requested. The written request should specify the grounds for appeal. Judicial recommendations may be appealed on the following grounds:
   - A violation of due process
   - Prejudicial treatment by the original hearing body
   - New evidence has become available which was not available at the time of the hearing.

3. Appeals shall be decided upon the record of the original proceedings, the written appeal submitted by the defendant, and any written briefs submitted by other participants. Cases will not be reheard on appeal.

4. If the student is dissatisfied with the decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs, the student may request in writing that the President consider the appeal, but such request must be made within five business days of the Vice President’s decision or the Vice President’s decision will be considered final and conclusive.

5. Within five business days of receiving the appeal, the President will either rule on the appeal or refer the appeal to a special Presidential Panel. The Presidential Panel will review all facts and circumstances connected with the case and within five business days make a report of its findings to the President. After consideration of the Panel’s report, the President will within five business days make a decision which shall be final so far as the College is concerned.

6. Should the student be dissatisfied with the President’s decision, written application may be made to the Board of Regents for a review of the decision. This application must be submitted within twenty days following the decision of the President. Additional information regarding procedures for appealing to the Board is available in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. The decision of the Board shall be final and binding for all purposes.

If there is a student in this class who has specific needs because of learning disabilities or any other disability, please feel free to contact the instructor. Appropriate documentation will be required.

Weather Hotline: (229) 391-5225 OR check ABAC homepage

Classroom behavior:
- Because this class will rely heavily on group discussion of the topics presented it is imperative that students exhibit respect towards each other at all times, despite differences of opinion. Having had different experiences often leads us to have different viewpoints; we don't have to agree, we just have to listen and grant others the right to their own opinions.
- Cell phones should be turned off upon entering the classroom and should not be used to either text or talk until you leave. Failure to do this will, at the very least, affect your participation grade, and will likely result in the confiscation of your phone until class is over. Don't make me do this!! Having a phone out on your desk or in your lap during a test is absolutely prohibited. If I see this, I will take your test and give you a zero. If you are expecting an EMERGENCY call, you must let me know prior to class the nature of the expected call; if I agree that it reaches the level of emergency, you will be allowed to leave your phone on vibrate and can leave the room to answer ONLY that call.
- It is my expectation that you will read the assigned chapter to be discussed BEFORE class so that you will be prepared to discuss what you've read.
- I know that some students would like to use laptops/tablets etc. in class to take notes and view power points; I don't forbid it, but I would let you know that you should be diligent in making sure that it doesn't distract others. You should also be willing to show me at any point what you have on there, so make sure you don't "stray" to anything else during class.

All writing assignments should be neat and employ good grammar and spelling; if this is not your strong suit, get someone to proof it for you before you turn it in. The ability to effectively communicate your ideas in writing is a life skill that will often determine your ability to flourish in a professional setting. It IS important!

Materials:
1. Exams: Exams will cover text material, class lectures, guest speakers, and supplemental videos viewed in class. Exams will be primarily objective with possibly some subjective (discussion or short answer).

2. Family Heirloom/Timeline: Students will create a timeline describing significant events in their personal and professional lives. Each student will share a family heirloom with the class and type a written description of the heirloom. Guidelines will be provided.

3. Family Case Study: Students will select a family from a television program or movie to observe. Students should describe the family in terms of type, roles, boundaries, communication patterns, power and conflict. Students will discuss family case studies in class on due date. Guidelines will be provided.

4. Participation Grades: These assignments will be given in class. These grades include quizzes over textbook reading material and class lecture, video evaluations, guest speaker evaluations, and in-class exercises, questions, and other written and oral class assignments. Attendance and class participation are important to achieving all possible points on these assignments. Students who never participate in discussions, or who do other things in class (playing with phone, doing other assignments) should expect a reduction in their participation grade. Students who talk to each other during class should realize that they are disturbing the learning process of others, not to mention being extremely rude. This will, at the very least, result in a lowered participation grade; continued talking may result in a pop quiz for the entire class that will count.

---

Course Grading:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assignment</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4 Exams (4 @ 100 points)</td>
<td>400</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Family Heirloom/Timeline</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Family Case Study</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Participation</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>550 points</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>495-550 (90-100%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>440-494 (80-89%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>385-439 (70-79%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>330-384 (60-69%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>329 &amp; BELOW (59% &amp; Below)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Syllabus sign-off sheet must be signed and turned in to instructor by the 3\textsuperscript{rd} class period or student will begin losing participation points.

Attendance: You are expected to come to class each time, having already read and/or completed all assignments. I will take attendance each time, and you will lose participation points for each absence, regardless of the reason. As a courtesy, you should make the instructor aware of any planned absences, but know this will not prohibit you from losing points for the absence. The participation grades from in-class assignments CANNOT be made up. My experience has been that a person’s attendance record in school or at a job has far less to do with life circumstances than with personal priorities!!
Tardiness: If you come in after I have called roll, you will be counted as absent for that day. You may participate in, and receive credit for, any in-class assignments, but the absence will remain on the roll and count against you in your final grade tally. Many students feel this policy is harsh, but it has been the only way I have found to cut down on excessive and disruptive tardies.

Leaving class early: If you get up during class, it disrupts everyone else. This should only be done in an absolute emergency. I will make a note of students who do this and it will count against your participation grade.

Make-up for missed exams: Since you will be allowed to drop one test grade, there will be no make-up for a missed test UNLESS your absence can be categorized as an Institutional Absence (see guidelines above) and you set up the makeup time with me BEFORE the absence. I must also have something in writing from the coach/sponsor that you have to miss class at that time in order to participate in this activity.

Late Assignments: Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Anything not ready to be turned in at that time will be considered late, and, if accepted, will incur a 10% penalty per day late. Keep in mind that I am not here every day, so there will be many days I will not check my box. If emailing me an assignment is the only way to get it to me, that is fine, but it is your responsibility to double check that I received it.

Important Dates:
- First day this class meets: Thursday, Aug. 15th
- Fall Break: October 14th – 18th
- Thanksgiving break: Nov. 27th - 29th
- Last day this class meets: Thursday, Dec. 5th
- Final Exam for this class will be the week of Dec. 9th-12th.
Name____________________________________

Class________________________ Home Phone_________________

Cell Phone___________________________

Alternate Email address________________________________

I have read and understand the classroom rules and policies. I agree to follow the policies.

______________________________  ______________________
Name                                        Date

Other helpful info:

Hometown_____________________________

Major_______________________________

Career goals (What do you want to be when you grow up?)

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________