For IMMEDIATE Release

FEBRUARY 14, 2013

This month’s Bottles and Brushes art class will feature “Tobacco Barn” by local artist and class instructor Brenda Rose. The class will take place at 6 p.m. on Feb. 21 at the Georgia Museum of Agriculture.

‘Bottles and Brushes’ Art Class February 21 at Museum of Agriculture

TIFTON—Participants in the “Bottles and Brushes” session on Feb. 21 will paint “Tobacco Barn”, created by local artist and class instructor Brenda Rose. The class will take place from 6-8 p.m. at the Georgia Museum of Agriculture and Historic Village at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College.

“Bottles and Brushes is a unique experience,” said Polly Huff, GMA Gallery Coordinator. “Participants get to create one-of-a-kind art in a relaxed setting while getting pointers from an expert.”

Rose will guide participants through the process of recreating her original work, while students create their own interpretation before their eyes. Participants can bring their favorite beverage while enjoying an evening of creativity and fun. The Gallery at the Museum will provide the paint, canvas and brushes.

There is a fee of $25 per person for the class or $40 for a couple. Participants must register ahead of time by contacting Huff at (229) 391-5222 or by emailing her at phuff@abac.edu. Space is limited so early registration is important.

Companies who are looking for a unique team-building experience or a way to reward exceptional employees can participate in the corporate edition of “Bottles and Brushes”. The corporate painting will be custom-tailored to fit each company’s mascot, theme, or idea.

Gift certificates are available for future classes.

###