For IMMEDIATE Release

ABAC Honors Program Students to Attend Honors Conference

TIFTON- Eight students in the Honors Program at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College will travel to Statesboro for the Georgia Collegiate Honors Conference on Feb. 8-9. All eight students were accepted for presentation at the conference. Over 100 presenters from colleges and universities across the state will participate.

Students accepted for presentation include Ariel Battle, a freshman biology major from Ocilla; Raquel Beltran, a freshman business major from Decatur, Ala.; James Conor Dunn, a freshman undeclared major from Tifton; Amber Hurst, a freshman animal science major from Ocala, Fla.; Brianna Roberts, a sophomore animal science major from Carlton; Jose Santana, a freshman chemical engineering major from Norcross; Michelle Sheffield, a biology major from Eastman; and Caleb Studstill, a sophomore biology major from Abbeville.

For more information on the ABAC Honors Program, interested persons can contact Dr. Cynthia Hall, Honors Program Director, at (229) 391-4955 or at chall@abac.edu.

###