Seasonal Interns
The Miami Marlins are seeking qualified individuals for the upcoming 2014 baseball season as seasonal interns. Marlins Park, home of the Miami Marlins, is located near downtown Miami, in the heart of the Little Havana neighborhood in Miami. Marlins Park opened in 2012 and has a retractable roof making it a venue for all seasons and all events. The park is expected to host a wide range of non-baseball events that include: concerts, soccer, football and corporate sponsored events to name a few.

Job Requirements
Individuals interested in these positions must respect the privacy and adhere to all Marlins policies with regards to autographs, photos and fraternizing with VIP’s. Individuals must exhibit a professional appearance and character as well as the ability to work well with co-workers and supervisors. Because of the physical demands of the job, candidates are expected to be able to lift and transport 40 pounds and have the ability to move quickly under unpredictable situations (i.e. tarp pulls). We will offer a minimum of 40 hours per week at $8.00 per hour. Individuals can expect to work nights, weekends and holidays. These positions are open to students who are currently enrolled in an accredited University who are majoring in Turfgrass Management or another related field of study. Starting and ending dates are flexible.

Duties and Responsibilities
The duties and responsibilities for these positions will include, but are not limited to; maintaining home plate, game and bullpen mounds to MLB specifications, mowing the bullpens and playing surface, edging, assisting with fertilizer/pesticide applications, aerifying and topdressing, resodding, warning track maintenance, watering the warning track and turf/clay areas, batting practice set-up and breakdown, pre-game and post-game field preparations, cleaning of shop, tarping the infield, working non-baseball events and learning a variety of cultural practices that are used to maintain the integrity of the entire playing surface.

All interested individuals are required to submit a cover letter, resume, transcripts and reference list to the following:
