Sine Nomine Singers Perform February 11 at ABAC

TIFTON – The Sine Nomine Singers of Valdosta will be the featured performers at a First Tuesday bonus event on Feb. 11 at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. The concert will be held in the Chapel of All Faiths on the ABAC campus at 7 p.m. All First Tuesday performances are open to the public at no cost.

The series features regional professional artists on the first Tuesdays of five months during the year. Dr. Susan Roe, Director of Music for the School of Liberal Arts, is the First Tuesday Program Director. She said February offers two First Tuesday concerts as a bonus to the community.

The Sine Nomine (which means “Without Name”) Singers were created to provide choral singing opportunities and challenging choral works for local singers. The Sine Nomine Singers increase the awareness and appreciation of sacred and secular choral works through promotion of area talent, innovative programming and collaborative performances with other artists. Membership is by invitation only.

The Sine Nomine Singers performance will include “Angelus ad Pastores ait” by composer Hans Leo Hassler; Maurice Durufle’s “Ubi Caritas”; “Kyrie” composed by Vytautas Miskinis; Johan Sebastian Bach’s “Ich Lasse Dich Nicht”; and “A Procession Winding Around Us” – a collection of four Walt Whitman poems about the Civil War with guitar composed by Jeffrey Van.

Other selections will include the women of the Sine Nomine performing “Healing River” arranged by Sheena Phillip; “Behold the Star” by William Dawson; Bradley Ellingboe’s “He Wishes for the Cloths of Heaven”; the men of Sine Nomine performing “I Carry Your Heart With Me” by David Dickau; James Quitman Mulholland’s “A Lad and a Lass”, and “Ask the Watchman” arranged by Paul Caldwell and Sean Ivory.

For more information on the concert, interested persons can contact Roe at sroe@abac.edu.
