Sponsored by ABAC Shooting Sports Club, Powell is the daughter of Steve and Jill Powell of Metter.

The Ms. Congeniality award is presented to the individual that receives the most votes from the other contestants. The People’s Choice award is given to the contestant who raises the most money in their self-decorated collection box. The money raised in the contestant boxes will be donated to the Relay for Life.

Kristen Card, a junior biology major from Cordele, won the title of Ms. ABAC. Other finalists included Sarah O’Neal, a Rural Studies Writing and Communication major from Tifton, first runner-up; Cassidy Reeh, a Rural Studies Writing and Communication major from Lexington, S.C., third runner-up; and Caraline Gordon, a Dental Hygiene major from Moultrie, fourth runner-up.

Reeh won the essay competition and Card won the interview competition.

The event was produced by the ABAC Ag Business Club.
