For IMMEDIATE Release

SEPTEMBER 18, 2014

Baldwin Players Announce Cast for ‘The Odd Couple’

TIFTON—Cast members have been selected for the female version of Neil Simon’s “The Odd Couple,” the Baldwin Players’ upcoming fall production at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, according to an announcement by Dr. Brian Ray, director for the theatre troupe.

Ray said this hilarious classic comedy celebrates the friendship and inevitable conflicts between two opposite personalities thrust into being mismatched roommates by circumstances. This is Simon’s original story of two men, Oscar and Felix, adapted by Simon himself into a story of two women, Olive and Florence.

The production dates for “The Odd Couple” are Nov. 6-8 in Howard Auditorium at 7 p.m. Tickets cost $7 (free to ABAC students, staff, and faculty) and are available at www.purplepass.com/abac or by calling 229.391.4895.

Cast members include Jason Brown as Manolo Costazuela, Caitlin Cato as Sylvie, Slayten Carter as Florence Unger, Jillian Grim as Renee, Holly Huggins as Vera, Tre’mon Mills as Jesus Costazuela, Kaylee Stokes as Mickey, and Collette Whittemore as Olive Madison.

Raven Hughley will serve as assistant director for the fall production.

Brown is an English major from Ashburn; Cato is a biology major from Bainbridge; Carter is a political science major from Willacoochee; Grim is a rural studies-writing and communication major from Meigs; Huggins is a music major from Fitzgerald; Mills is a speech communications major from Blakely; Stokes is an English major from Tifton; Whittemore is a biology major from Cumming; and Hughey is a biology major from Dalton.

For more information on “The Odd Couple,” interested persons can contact Ray at (229) 391-4969 or via e-mail at bray@abac.edu.

###