Associate of Applied Science degree with a major in Environmental Horticulture Technology

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate technical skills necessary for employment in the turf and landscape industry.
2. Students will recognize disorders and pests of turf and landscape technology.
3. Students will demonstrate an understanding of sound financial and human resource management techniques for the industry.