Bachelor of Arts/Science degree with a major in Rural Studies

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate critical thinking in analyzing the social, political, economic or cultural issues affecting the rural landscape.
2. Students will present written and oral projects utilizing effective communication skills and exhibiting a command of rural studies subject matter.
3. Students will demonstrate the skills necessary to engage rural communities or their businesses in order to foster development and local opportunities.