Degler and Stephens Named 2015 Homecoming King and Queen

Lisa Stephens, a rural studies – writing and communication major from Turin and Clay Degler, a business and economic development major from Greenville, were named the 2015 Homecoming King and Queen at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. The couple, sponsored by the ABAC Men’s Golf team, was crowned during Thursday night’s student concert as part of the college’s Homecoming Week events. Of the 929 votes tallied, Stephens and Degler received a total of 645 votes between them.