Fox Creek Standout Signs with ABAC Baseball Stallions

TIFTON—Brett Sitton, a standout third baseman from Fox Creek, S.C., is one of 14 new freshman recruits who will shoulder a heavy burden for the Golden Stallions of Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College during the 2016 baseball season.

Brandon Reeder, recently named the ABAC head coach after wearing the interim title during the 2015 campaign, said the freshmen will add much needed depth to a squad which streaked out to a 12-2 start in conference play but wound up fourth in the league tournament.

“We lost our entire infield from last year’s team so we have some holes to fill,” Reeder said. “There are a lot of little areas we can improve on from last year.”

Sitton had an awesome senior campaign when he hit .533, clouted two home runs, and had 30 runs batted in. For his efforts, he was named to the South Carolina Baseball Coaches Association all-star team.
“Brett is a smooth fielder who has the actions of an elite player,” Reeder said. “He’s a consistent line drive hitter, and I love that. He played third base in high school but I believe he has the tools to be a really good shortstop at this level.”

Other freshman recruits include Austin Guest, a pitcher from Brunswick; Cain Peterson, a third baseman from Eastman; Hunter Bramlett, a catcher from Douglas; Bran Davis, an outfielder from Douglas; Preston Sparks, a pitcher from Kathleen; Tristain Daugherty, a pitcher from LaGrange; Dakota Sloan, an outfielder from Hawkinsville; Bryce Shupe, an outfielder from Walnut Grove; Chandler Hyman, a pitcher from Walnut Grove; Ethan Edwards, an outfielder from Macon; Tyler Bunn, a pitcher from LaGrange; Keaton Gordon, a pitcher from Gray; and Colby Melton, a second baseman from Thomasville.

###