Baldwin Players Announce Cast for ‘The Skin of Our Teeth’

TIFTON—Cast members have been selected for “The Skin of Our Teeth,” the Baldwin Players’ upcoming fall production at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College.

Dr. Brian Ray, director for the theatre troupe, said “The Skin of Our Teeth” will be staged in Howard Auditorium at 7 p.m. on Oct. 29-31. Admission is free to ABAC faculty, staff and students. The ticket cost is $7 per person for the general public.

Written by noted playwright and novelist Thornton Wilder, the Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy takes a long look at just what it means to be a human being. Mankind has spent all of history surviving climate change, natural disasters, and war. In this epic romp about the Antrobus family that spans all of human history, from the dawn of the Ice Age to the not-so-distant future, Wilder gets audiences to laugh at humanity’s strengths and weaknesses as a species. The play takes place in a theatrical setting, where mankind faces the end of the world three times and still goes on by the “skin of our teeth.”

Cast members include Cody Durden as Mr. Antrobus, Kaylee Stokes as Mrs. Antrobus, Ezzard Stewart as Henry, Alena Norton as Gladys, Caroline Kirkland as Sabina, Ryan Norton as Fitzpatrick, Nick Shepard as Dinosaur/Bingo Caller/Bailey, Chris Spradley as Mammoth/Broadcaster/Tremayne, Jason Brown as Homer/Conventioneer, Noel Valdez as Doctor/Conventioneer, Sonja Heard as Moses/Conventioneer/Hester, Sarah Beth Rakestraw as Muse/Drum Major/Ivy, Bonnie Young as a Refugee/Fortune Teller, Amber Dillard as a Telegraph Person/Conventioneer, and Cheyenne Miller as a Refugee/Conventioneer.

Durden is a business and economic development major from Adel; Stokes is a rural studies –writing and communication major from Tifton; Stewart is a history major from Fitzgerald; Alena Norton is a member of the community; Kirkland is a biology major from Tifton; Ryan Norton is a member of the community; Shepard is an undeclared major from Tifton; Spradley is a biology major from Tifton; Brown is a rural studies –writing and communication major from Ashburn; Valdez is a rural studies –writing and communication major from Sparks; Heard is a member of the community; Rakestraw is a rural studies –writing and communication major from Tifton; Young is a member of the community; Dillard is a pre-nursing major from Fitzgerald; and Miller is a pre-nursing major from Fitzgerald.

For more information on “The Skin of Our Teeth,” interested persons can contact Ray at (229) 391-4969 or via e-mail at bray@abac.edu.

###