Bold Springs Coed Named Finalist in Ms. ABAC Event

TIFTON – Kaylee Ewing, a sophomore accounting major from Bold Springs, was named the first runner-up in the recent Ms. ABAC event at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Madison Lynn from Vidalia was crowned Ms. ABAC 2016.

Ewing, the daughter of Shannon and Lori Ewing, also received the Interview Award. She was sponsored by ABAC’s College Republicans.
Other finalists included second runner-up Pamela Ashton Lovett, an agriculture communications major from Adel; third runner-up Delanie Israel, a diversified agriculture major from Smithville; and fourth runner-up Amanda Lynn Thomas, a writing and communications major from Douglas.

Jennifer Richter, an animal science major from Snellville, received the Ms. Congeniality award; Madison MaLynn Thornhill, a writing and communications major from Tifton, won the essay award; and Ginger Orton, an agriculture communications major from Ellaville, won the People’s Choice award.

The Ms. ABAC contest was sponsored by the ABAC Agricultural Business Club. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.
