Douglas Coed Named Finalist in Ms. ABAC Event

TIFTON – Amanda Lynn Thomas, a freshman writing and communications major from Douglas, was named the fourth runner-up in the recent Ms. ABAC event at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Madison Lynn from Vidalia was crowned Ms. ABAC 2016.

Thomas is the daughter of Sid and Sherry Adams and Joey Thomas. She was sponsored by Still Images Photography.
Other finalists included first runner-up Kaylee Ewing, an accounting major from Bold Springs; second runner-up Pamela Ashton Lovett, an agriculture communications major from Adel; and third runner-up Delanie Israel, a diversified agriculture major from Smithville.

Ewing received the interview award; Jennifer Richter, an animal science major from Snellville, received the Ms. Congeniality award; Madison MaLynn Thornhill, a writing and communications major from Tifton, won the essay award; and Ginger Orton, an agriculture communications major from Ellaville, won the People’s Choice award.

The Ms. ABAC contest was sponsored by the ABAC Agricultural Business Club. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.
