For IMMEDIATE Release

TIFTON – Pamela Ashton Lovett, a sophomore agriculture communications major from Adel, was named the second runner-up in the recent Ms. ABAC event at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Madison Lynn from Vidalia was crowned Ms. ABAC 2016.

Lovett is the daughter of Billy Joe and Jennifer Lovett. She was sponsored by the Young Farmers Club.
Other finalists included first runner-up Kaylee Ewing, an accounting major from Bold Springs; third runner-up Delanie Israel, a diversified agriculture major from Smithville; and fourth runner-up Amanda Lynn Thomas, a writing and communication major from Douglas.

Ewing received the interview award; Jennifer Richter, an animal science major from Snellville, received the Ms. Congeniality award; Madison MaLynn Thornhill, a writing and communications major from Tifton, won the essay award; and Ginger Orton, an agriculture communications major from Ellaville, won the People’s Choice award.

The Ms. ABAC contest was sponsored by the ABAC Agricultural Business Club. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.
