Smithville Coed Named Finalist in Ms. ABAC Event

TIFTON – Delanie Israel, a sophomore diversified agriculture major from Smithville, was named the third runner-up in the recent Ms. ABAC event at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Madison Lynn from Vidalia was crowned Ms. ABAC 2016.

Israel is the daughter of Charles and Tracy Israel. She was sponsored by ABAC’s Baptist Collegiate Ministries.
Other finalists included first runner-up Kaylee Ewing, an accounting major from Bold Springs; second runner-up Pamela Ashton Lovett, an agricultural communications major from Adel; and fourth runner-up Amanda Lynn Thomas, a writing and communication major from Douglas.

Ewing received the interview award; Jennifer Richter, an animal science major from Snellville, received the Ms. Congeniality award; Madison MaLynn Thornhill, a writing and communications major from Tifton, won the essay award; and Ginger Orton, an agriculture communications major from Ellaville, won the People’s Choice award.

The Ms. ABAC contest was sponsored by the ABAC Agricultural Business Club. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.
