Ellaville Coed Receives People’s Choice Award at Ms. ABAC Event

TIFTON – Ginger Orton, a sophomore agriculture communications major from Ellaville, received the People’s Choice award at the recent Ms. ABAC event at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Madison Lynn from Vidalia was crowned Ms. ABAC 2016.
Orton is the daughter of Bob and Laura Orton. She was sponsored by ABAC’s Agricultural Communicators of Tomorrow (ACT).

Finalists in the Ms. ABAC contest included first runner-up Kaylee Ewing, an accounting major from Bold Springs; second runner-up Pamela Ashton Lovett, an agriculture communications major from Adel; third runner-up Delanie Israel, a diversified agriculture major from Smithville; and fourth runner-up Amanda Lynn Thomas, a writing and communication major from Douglas.

Ewing received the interview award; Madison MaLynn Thornhill, a writing and communications major from Tifton, won the essay award; and Jennifer Richter, an animal science major from Snellville won the Ms. Congeniality award.

The Ms. ABAC contest was sponsored by the ABAC Agricultural Business Club. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.
