Snellville Coed Receives Ms. Congeniality Award at Ms. ABAC Event

TIFTON – Jennifer Richter, a sophomore animal science major from Snellville, received the Ms. Congeniality award at the recent Ms. ABAC event at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Madison Lynn from Vidalia was crowned Ms. ABAC 2016.
Richter is the daughter of Michael and Denice Richter. She was sponsored by ABAC’s Forestry Club.

Finalists in the Ms. ABAC contest included first runner-up Kaylee Ewing, an accounting major from Bold Springs; second runner-up Pamela Ashton Lovett, an agriculture communications major from Adel; third runner-up Delanie Israel, a diversified agriculture major from Smithville; and fourth runner-up Amanda Lynn Thomas, a writing and communication major from Douglas.

Ewing received the interview award; Madison MaLynn Thornhill, a writing and communications major from Tifton, won the essay award; and Ginger Orton, an agriculture communications major from Ellaville, won the People’s Choice award.

The Ms. ABAC contest was sponsored by the ABAC Agricultural Business Club. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.
