The Lab Sciences Building is being constructed as a replacement for the aging and inadequate laboratories in Gray Hall. This state-of-the-art structure will integrate the latest science and information technologies in an enhanced learning environment. The new facility will accommodate the first lab students in the fall semester of 2016.

Drone footage of the construction site from February 21, 2016:

March 10, 2016 Update

https://youtu.be/l76khJXTpCw