For IMMEDIATE Release

Heath, Hartley Named ABAC Homecoming King and Queen

Savannah Hartley (left), a rural studies–politics and modern cultures major from Glenwood, and Tyler Heath (right), a diversified agriculture major from Adrian, were crowned as the 2016 Homecoming King and Queen in the recent competition at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Hartley and Heath were sponsored by the Sigma Alpha sorority. Over 500 votes were cast in the competition which was sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

###