AET Truck and Tractor Pull September 21-23 at ABAC

TIFTON – Trucks and tractors of all shapes and sizes will rev their engines and roar down the track on Sept. 21-23 at the AET Truck and Tractor Pull sponsored by the Agricultural Engineering Technology Club at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. The event is open to all students, faculty, staff, and the public.

On Sept. 21, ABAC students and the community can participate in the amateur night that begins at 7 p.m. The admission fee will be $5 per person. Children five and under get in free. Participants can enter their vehicles in the event for a cost of $5 per pull. Gates will open at 6 p.m.

On Sept. 22-23, the Southern Pullers Association will provide the show featuring professional pullers. Admission will be $15 for adults; $10 for children six-10 years of age; $10 for students with an ABAC I.D.; and free for children five and under.

On Sept. 22, gates will open at 6 p.m., and pulling will start at 7 p.m. On Sept. 23, the gates will open at 5 p.m., and pulling will start at 6 p.m.

For more information on the AET Truck and Tractor Pull, interested persons can contact AET club advisors Ray Lundy at rlundy@abac.edu or Todd Hicks at thicks@abac.edu.
