Natural Resources Conservation Workshop 2016

Workshop Mission
To educate students on the importance of Georgia’s natural resources.

Workshop Information
- More than $18,000 in college scholarships will be awarded during the workshop!
- Available to Georgia’s rising 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students.
- Located at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College in Tifton, GA.
- Featuring field trips, classroom instruction, and recreational activities.

Workshop Contributors
- Georgia Association of Conservation District Supervisors
- Georgia Chapter Soil and Water Conservation Society
- Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College
- Georgia Soil & Water Conservation Commission
- USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service
- U. S. Forest Service
- Godfrey Warehouse Inc.
- Pennington Seed Company
- Georgia Conservation Tillage Alliance
- Bass Pro Shop
- ABAC AG Alumni Council
- Middle South Georgia SWCD

The workshop focuses on the value, protection, and conservation of Georgia’s wildlife, forestry, soil, and water resources, including conservation in Georgia’s mining industry.

Download an application or find more information at our website: www.abac.edu/nrcw

Early Bird Registration Deadline: May 2, 2016