

ABAC's School of Social Sciences, Education, & Arts (SEA) prides itself on preparing students for success, wherever their future paths take them. Of course, many careers will require additional training beyond ABAC. Regardless of your chosen major, SEA has established agreements with other institutions that can help open the door to the next step in your education.

Associate of Fine Arts in Music

- Seamless transfer admissions for qualifying students into bachelor's-level music programs at Albany State, Columbus State, Georgia Southern, Georgia Southwestern & Valdosta State

History and Government, B.S.

- Fast-track consideration for admission for qualified students applying to Valdosta State's Master of Public Administration program

Core Curriculum A.S.

- USG Approved Core Curriculum transfers to all USG institutions
- GSW-ABAC Cohort Program: Core Curriculum, A.S. Elementary Education pathway students can earn an education bachelor's degree from Georgia Southwestern with GSW classes offered on ABAC's campus

Rural Community Development, B.S.

- Fast-track consideration for qualified students applying to Georgia Southern's Master of Public Health or Public Health Certificate programs
- Guaranteed interview for qualifying students applying to Valdosta State's master's degree programs in Marriage and Family Therapy, Counselor Education program, and Industrial/Organizational Psychology
- Fast-track consideration for qualified students applying to Valdosta State's Master of Social Work program

Criminal Justice, B.S.

- Guaranteed admission and waived application fees for qualified students applying to Albany State's Master of Science in Criminal Justice program

Writing and Communication, B.S.

- Fast-track consideration for admission for qualified students applying to Valdosta State's Master of Arts in Communication Arts program